

Marco Zambon

Marco Zambon is a marketing and business development expert focused on helping Italian companies navigate and succeed within the North American market. Based in Toronto Canada has previous experience working in India, England, and Italy engaging with public and private partners.

Diverse knowledge, across a wide range of industry sectors, including Energy, Agriculture, Healthcare, Machines, Interiors, and Food has helped Marco to deeply understand business dynamics.

In 2021 has joined the Ecogest team with the goal to unlock opportunities and facilitate expansion in Canada. Marco is the first point of contact in the territory and covers the role of director for Ecogest North America. The vision is to achieve what Ecogest has already accomplished in Europe, becoming one of the main leaders in the maintenance along highways and roads.
